

TITLE

A PROCESS FOR MAKING COSMETIC CONTAINERS HAVING A TRANSPARENT THERMOPLASTIC OUTER WALL

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

- 5 The present invention is a process for extrusion blow molding containers having a transparent outer layer of a plastic material. The containers of the present invention have a smooth, glass-like appearance, and can be used as a less expensive alternative to glass bottles.